DEPORTATION FOR LEADER IS SAID IN STORE

Attorney Declares Liberty May Mean Death to Chieftain

YORKTON, SASK., Nov. 9.—As the time approaches for release of Peter Veregin from Prince Albert jail where the leader of the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood is serving a sentence for perjury, members of the Doukhobor sect are putting forth every effort to prevent his deportation to Russia.

J. W. Shantz, attorney for Veregin, who has spent the past few weeks travelling back and forth in Russia, has filed a petition with Veregin's appeal against deportation, conferred with J. W. Shantz, president of the Doukhobors' organization, M. W. Czakowski, general manager of the community, and Andrei Kotelkoef, first cousin of the imprisoned leader.

In an interview Makarov said he had been approached by authorities that Veregin should be deported to Russia, but he would not say if he would go to Mexico, where the deportation of the immigration act stipulated that he be deported to the U.S. or to Canada.

Veregin came to Canada from Russia some time ago.

Veregin in an interview some time ago stated at the time of his migration he was fleeing from the sentence of death and some of his followers believe execution awaits them there.

The man, it is told by Mr. Curley, manager of the Dominion Telegraph Company, appeared before the Medical Board of the Bell Telephone Co. on Dec. 2, 1879, and in part is as follows:

"A few months ago one of our subscribers was disturbed at night by a hacking cough emanating from his bed. His wife, a woman who resided through her telephone for her medical attendant, after consulting with the medical parties placed in communication and after a few seconds the doctor's voice came through the mouth into the transmitter." This was done, and the answer came back, "Your child had bed, that's not enough."

When "Hunger Marchers" Fled

English "hunger marchers" had abandoned their speech-making for violence when this picture was taken in Hyde Park, London, during the recent riots there. At least 40 persons were injured in this clash, but not a single shot was fired as 2,500 mounted and foot police scattered the crowds of unemployed who were planning a march on parliament. The arrow indicates one protestor demonstrating and others regarding their feet after falling under the weight of others of the crowd. Other marchers who had suffered effects of malcontent are shown fleeing before the advancing police.

Jury Disagrees Second Time On Kelowna Police Chief Murder Case

INSANITY PLEA PRESENTED FOR DAVE MURDOCH

Slayer of Jean Nolan and Police Constable to Get
New Trial

VERNON, B.C., Nov. 9.—The jury reported a disagreement last night in the case of David Murdoch charged with the murder of Jean Nolan and Police Constable John J. It was the second trial, a jury having disagreed last June. It is believed that a new jury will be sworn in a new trial by Thursday at the latest. An insanity defense was offered on behalf of Murdoch at both trials.

Murdoch, then chief of police of Kelowna, is alleged to have shot down Miss Nolan, a police officer, twice, and to have been in the lobby of a hotel. Shortly afterward, Constable Murdoch was arrested. Murdoch submitted his defense in his home. Murdoch submitted guilty to armed robbery.

The crown has conceded that Murdoch has suffered all his life from a nervous condition and that all hands were against him because he was an illegitimate child. The defense claimed that it was while in a state of insanity arising from this condition, that he shot the two officers.

The crown contended that Murdoch knew the difference between right and wrong.

Ottawa House May Force Embargo On Shipments Of Oil From Russia

BENNETT GIVES SOME LIGHT ON SOVIET DEALS

Exchange of Petrof or Aluminium Is Aired in House

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—Possibility that Russian oil may be embargoed by Canada was suggested in the house of commons last night by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett.

He told the house an investigation is being conducted by the department of national revenue into the nature of recent oil shipments from Russia to Canada in exchange for Canadian aluminium.

If it should be found Russian oil imports from Trinidad, which enjoys a preference in the Canadian market, it might be decided to place an embargo against them.

Some time ago the recent exchange of Canadian aluminium for Russian oil was described as being the cause of the recent increase in oil imports from Trinidad, which enjoys a preference in the Canadian market.

It might be decided to place an embargo against them.

If the salary is above that figure, he must receive leave of absence from his post, and he must resign from the municipal office.

TERMS IMPOSED HOLDING OFFICE

OTTAWA, Nov. 9.—The government has issued a list of conditions under which civil servants may hold municipal offices. The order came yesterday.

In all cases permission must be secured from Ottawa before a civil servant contests a municipal election. If the post he seeks carries a salary of $1,000 or more a year, unless he may hold it without severing his connection with the government.

If the salary is above that figure, he must receive leave of absence from his post, and he must resign from the municipal office.

Police Recover Stolen Goods

TORONTO, Nov. 9.—Pendants, diamond rings, brooches, watches and a bottle of expensive perfume were recovered by police today from two窃贼 who had recently arrived from Vancouver. Larsen faces seven charges of burglarage.

ADVERTISING MAN DIES

PETERBORO, Ont., Nov. 9.—James Harvey Callander, advertising manager of the Peterboro Examiner, died yesterday of a heart attack. He was 56 years old.

It was learned that he had been engaged in the advertising business for 35 years.

But, continued Mr. Bennett, there were items of import which were not on the list. Russian Oil being one.

Consequently the Aluminum Company made arrangements to export Canadian aluminum to Russia.

The oil was sent to Canada in a Danish ship. A test of the oil, conducted at the British Research Laboratory, showed that it was not crude oil, but fuel oil and gasoline.

In DIFFERENT CATEGORY

Crude oil was allowed in free, from the United States, but oil from Russia was in a different category.

When it became apparent to the Russians that the future, the matter resolved itself into a question for the Department of National Revenue, and also the question of unfair competition to be decided.

Mr. Bennett referred to the fact that Canada imports crude oil from Trinidad. Trinidad oil enjoyed a preference in the Canadian market.

London Is Sliding Back Into Sea But No One Seems Much Concerned

Scientists Declare That Chalk Cliffs, Waterloo Bridge, Bank of England and St. Paul's Cathedral All Are Gradually Sinking

Watloo bridge sinks at high tide and rises again at low tide.

By A. JOHN KORTLER, JR.
LONDON, Nov. 8.—"London bridge is falling down,"—and the world has become prophecy, proprie- tary now in the process of a relentless fulfillment, which embraces all England.

Not only is London bridge "falling down," but the entire island of this great island is "falling down" with it—falling inch by inch, like the azur sea from which it arose.

CHALK CLIFFS SINKING

The chalk cliffs of Dover, land-bound mariners strain their gaze, are sinking into the ocean at the rate of one foot a year. In another ten years now stands the heart of a mighty empire on which the sun never sets, but in another not-so-distant future only the empire of rolling waves, preserving within its bosom the source of most formidable victim.

With such fearful possibilities, spreading like a malignant fact, Captain T. E. Longfield staggered scientists of the world, meeting at York, to consider the fate of the British association.

Captain Longfield offered his horn to the Thessaly, the impending catalyst, by pointing to outstanding London landmarks, which, he said, were in the caesarean process of "falling down."

If a motion-picture film of London's future could be made and shown in quick-motion under the title of "The Rise and Fall of London," it would be some of the star performances:

Watloo bridge, leaping up and down, like a giant convulsive, straining at its piles.

The Bank of England, sinking with the tide, like the bowels of the earth.

St. Paul's cathedral, "safe as the Rock of Gibraltar," falling steadily over, and crashing to earth.

Montreal Chest Is Falling Short

MONTREAL, Nov. 9.—With the fall of the Bank of England seeking $750,000 before the drive closes, Montreal had a comfortable cushion of $1,000,000 in reserve funds. Morning collections had been up to $1,000,000, but must have been at least 15 feet lower than it is now.

As though this were not enough, Britain is sinking faster now than in prehistoric times. If the prehistoric engineers will have to face the same problem, they will be in trouble.

A County Hall official admitted yesterday that the building, at right sight motion with the tide, in common with all the buildings in that section of London, would sink into a century, instead of one.

The Bank of England is the center of the world's financial system, and its bank has a safe 12 feet.

London, the Queen's home, is falling upon the Queen.

The Queen's home, the Queen's home, the Queen's home, the Queen's home.

"The new gold fields of this era have been well known to us," says G. A. Prang, "but we have had a period of adjustment, then in 1925, severe economic depression."

Eighteen banks failed in one day in 1925, and the streets were filled with the streets were dead." Some 50,000 people lost their jobs, and the government was concerned the land annuities.

The Peruvian gunboats America and Napo, supported by the small naval force of the country, engaged the Colombian gunboats Cartagena and Santa Maria.

The Peruvians sank the gunboats and the Santa Maria captured.

Scotland Sends Prize Livestock

QUEBEC, Nov. 9.—Prize-winning cattle among the farmers of Canada's prairie provinces, 44 head of cattle, were sent to the Royal Show on the Cunard freighter Sulis.

Canada supplies about half of the United Kingdom's supply of cattle.

From Confederation, these cattle have been sent up and down to the general business activities in Canada. Life insurance however, had not been introduced until 1897, and the life insurance business had then times the life insurance business.

Dr. R. B. Mooney Tells Story Of Fight Against Cancer

Catholic Women's League
Hears About Radium—
Bridge Planned

Men engaged in the medical profession are waging a long and desperate fight against cancer, but this fight will end in conquering the disease. As far as I am concerned, plague and smallpox were subdued. Dr. Bernard R. Mooney told the members of the Catholic Women's League when he addressed a meeting held at the Rosay Hall on Tuesday afternoon.

Speaking of x-ray and radium in the treatment of cancer, he described in detail exactly what radium is, tracing the discovery of radium from its first use in 1898, and discovered x-ray in 1895, and describing in detail the work of Madame Curie which was so important in the development of radium.

The production of radium was first started in Canada in 1900, in Colorado, the Belgian Congo, and now the rare mineral is found at Great Bear Lake. The radium there at Great Bear Lake is true, the price which has made radium almost a household word, is considerably reduced. Perhaps the most remarkable thing about the use of any mineral, a gram of radium from Colorado now costs $125,000. If the cost of radium can be utilized, the cost should be reduced to $10,000 or $15,000 a gram, and this would be an important factor in the battle with dread and fatal disease.

HOW IS USED

In Medicine, radium is used, pointing out that radium cannot be used alone, it must be used in conjunction with other treatments. He stressed the necessity of early diagnosis, for unless cancer is discovered early, there is little hope of curing it; it is impossible to cure it by x-ray methods. If promptly diagnosed the results are effective.

It is the opinion of the best authorities that all women should report for medical examination twice a year in order to guard against cancer. This information appealed to the public for sympathetic support in using their reason to help the League in its campaign who know the science of medicine are being used.

Mr. J. J. Duggan, president of the League, was in the chair and graciously thanked Dr. Mooney for his interesting address. The after-terminus of the meeting was opened by Mrs. Frank Conroy was made convener of a bridge to be held in the Canadian Club on November 12th and December 8th when the proceeds of the affair will be utilized in the welfare of the League.

Mrs. W. H. Kelly and Mrs. Joyce are in charge of arrangements for a show to be held in aid of the Service Aids Committee in the concert next Tuesday evening.

Tea was served after the meeting.

CHILD TRAINING RUNS INTO
It is no wonder that parents become confused over the various changes in child-training—the constantly shifting picture that presents a new view each year, it seems.

And yet though the picture changes, each reel brings us a step nearer to the day when we shall believe it is anything to be discouraged about.

The question of child rearing came about as most revolutions do, through extremes at first. Not only did a few parents insist that they must stand such terms as "self-expression" and liberty, but many parents and even the welfare themselves made certain statements they since have been compelled to收回.

All this preface is to prepare for something I wish to warn the student. Every great movement, even a revolution, after its first emanation, is bound to have a reaction. And I keep my ear close to the latest pronouncements of the most eminent of nurseries of malcontents.

PARENTS ARE COMPLAINING
It is not uncommon today to hear people say impatiently, "The parents of the last ten years are the worst." They have done more harm than good. The old ways were the best ways. It is good for a child to have fear. It is good for him to be "whipped."

But the parents of the last ten years do one day recently, a specialist on nervous diseases called Dr. G. C. Ladd, "The Child is All." Because he leads them to believe he is intensely interested in children and has studied them all over the country.

"Don't worry," he said in his report to the National Education Trust, "the method of educating adults in regard to understanding children has been so well done that on will take generations to perfect."

In fact, he said, "the most encouraging part of it is the slowness with which it has taken hold. The parents who are doing the most damage are the ones who go through are encouraging also."

I show that parents are doing a better job, but they are not as a fad, and are really vitally important.

If they differ from new methods now and then that in itself is not bad, but it is not long AB THEY ARE THINKING.

The latest reveal seems to be about discipline. It appears that many parents of the new methods are coming in, and many children of the method have not been very good. There have been some very bad results and that many children, so far, have been getting little nuisances.

We do not blame the system. I lay the blame to the dose of certain misunderstandings on the part of the parents. They are not for "license" and "shy" completely out.

RECENT LOAN ALONG EASING MONEY LINES

Idea "Highly Desirable" in Interests of Business Recovery

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—The recent loan of $50,000,000 secured by the government from the banks on two-year notes at four per cent, was in accordance with the idea that an easing of money is "highly desirable" in the interests of business recovery, Premier R. B. Bennett told the House of Commons Tuesday.

So far as he was aware, the prime minister made his statement in answer to a question raised by E. H. Spencer (U.P.A., Battle River).

While the loan may not be quite justified in joining with other countries in the adoption of monetary measures to assist business recovery, broad action along this line was necessary, Mr. Bennett said. In his previous speech he declared that "this country will not depart from the established principles of sound money."

It is of the opinion that the present approach of the government to the department bonds on a 4% per cent basis might not present itself again for a long time to come. That is to say, the temporary loans to redeem the next maturity is in August.

Mr. Spencer further asked if the government was charging the banks interest on the loans which they were getting under the Finance act.

The usual practice has been that the spread between the charge made by the banks and the charge paid by the government was one per cent," replied the prime minister.

This prevail in this case?

East and South Roll Up Votes To Beat Hoover

New York Presents Bourbons 47 Votes

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Franklin D. Roosevelt captured the often pivotal 47 electoral votes of his home state in a landslide victory of a Democratic candidate in the metropolitan area that buried an update advantage of President Hoover beneath a city plurality approximating 800,000.

Counting with his tremendous sweep, the entire state ticket of his party apparently was carried to victory.

Early in the evening William H. Dill, assistant Eastern Republican campaign manager, said a victory of Roosevelt triumphed in the state.

A turnout of 637,1 of the state's 847 electors were registered to vote.

With 1,262,000 votes, Roosevelt won a 1,000,000 lead over Al Smith.

About 9 p.m. Colored William J. Donohue, Republican nominee, conceded the election. Lieutenant Governor Herbert H. Lehman, Democrat, is to succeed Roosevelt in the gubernatorial chair.

At the same time, representative Frank P. Murphy, who had a seat in Congress from the 17th district since 1929, conceded he had been beaten by Theodore A. Payne, a Democrat.

Tammany Hall, apparently swept out of power by P. O'Connor, was the only major party to give its majority chair from which James J. Walker resigned last Sept. 1.

John J. O'Brien gave O'Brien a commanding total of 453,881, with 183,947 for Lewis H. Frazee, 101,000 for John J. Flynn, 96,512 for Morris Hillquit, Socialist.

GarnerHears N.Y. Ballot Then To Bed

VALUABLE TEX., Nov. 9.—John N. Garner, Democratic candidate for vice-president, returned to his home in the house of his son, Tully Garner, in Dallas.

"I am going to bed at nine o'clock in spite of everything," Garner added. "I am sure that this will make me the vice-president of the United States."

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 9.—Florida slid swiftly back into the solid south Democratic column last night on the basis of incomplete returns.

With 38 scattered precision tabulations, the Democratic candidate Roosevelt had amassed a 4,256 vote preponderance with 1,468 for President Hoover.

Dave Scholtz, Democratic nominee for governor, was far in front of George W. Brown, Independent.

NEWS TERMS IT 'LANDSLIDE'

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The New York Daily News said in its first edition this morning that Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt as president of the United States was making a "landslide" victory as the polls began closing.

"These returns indicated a landslide victory for the new 'Roosevelt'," the Daily News said. The new government had also gained a sweeping victory in both House and Senate, and Mr. Roosevelt's campaign.

Roosevelt Champion of 'Forgotten Man' Is Son of Culture

Newly Elected President Suffered Torments

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the new President of the United States, a son of wealth and culture, became in the intense political struggle that culminated in his victory a champion of groups that never had the advantage of either.

The young man, who had a political campaign, Mr. Roosevelt never let the voters forget that he considered the people of middle class and government were tied up with work for the workers and greater security for industry and the employees.

The "forgotten man" by-word of the Roosevelt campaign found voice in him.

AT PYRAMID BOTTOM

The "forgotten man," he said, was an old man, a woman, a child, a midwife and relief measures for banks and industry did not sift down to the bottom.

Mr. Roosevelt, now 56, stands better than six feet tall and has a robust physique, though he suffered inflection of infantile paralysis suffered in 1921. His right to regain full health was denied him by the disease after being stricken with the disease and partial paralysis other limbs than his left followed him for a time, but he has since recovered.

He now speaks with a wry smile as stories of his youth though he walks with the help of his Walls with two canes.

FIRST POLITICAL VICTORY

Not many years after his recovery from the disease, he was elected to the legislature of New York.

Surely had settled himself in the house before he was elected to the legislature.

He now speaks with a wry smile as stories of his youth though he walks with the help of his Walls with two canes.

SECOND POLITICAL VICTORY

Not many years after his recovery from the disease, he was elected to the legislature of New York.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKETS

STOCK MARKET DULL TRADING AFFAIR AGAIN

WINNIPEG, Nov. 9.—Wheat prices worked uncertainty higher during the earlier hours of trading today but were then seen to have given up their tendency to be local hedging and some liquidation. Values at the close were no less than yesterday's.

November finished at 40¢ for the December delivery, while January was off 1¢ to 38, while December lost 1¢ to 31 cents.

Flaxseed was very limited with sales estimated at slightly over 500,000 bushels from both Atlantic and Pacific Provinces.

The Bradys' grain market was generally holding off pending a little more stability in the market.

The grain market was somewhat combed with liquidation being the pit slogan for the early morning trading. It was believed that some optimism in the port in December was found necessary to prevent further losses in values.

Wheat moved from farms in western Canada at 38¢ per bushel, while the 24 hour period totalled 1,800,000 bushels compared with 2,400,000 bushels in October.

Cash wheat and coarse grains in trade held generally unchanged.

HOOVER WILL SIT FOR NEXT FOUR MONTHS

Coming "Lame-duck" Session May be Fateful for States

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 8.—President Hoover, as final action to quash the sedition laws, has signed his home today, told newspapermen that he would return to private life after next March 4.

By KEN CLARK
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Triumph of Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Democrats in the election, however, did not bring him home today, told newspapermen that he would return to private life after next March 4.

Yet for the next four months, Mr. Hoover will remain in the White House, a king without a throne or sceptre so to speak, while the Senate whatever it may do to the Democratic party or not will be called upon to do its bidding as it goes to December 3 and legislate just as though it still had behind the wall of silence.

MAY BE FAITHFUL

The so-called "lame-duck" session, the last of the 72nd congress, convened yesterday and unless Congress may be a fateful one for the United States.

The new president, together with the next vice-president, John Nance Garner, speaker of the house, and others in the power, it might be in the emergency. President Hoover, however, is not inclined to let their efforts temporarily. Certainly the prospect for legislation is not bright, but there is no consideration of such a course.

In the lame-duck session all sorts of legislation will be introduced, many of whom no longer having a majority from the Senate, will be compelled to be much more careful of the public's hand. Leaders of the various wings of the White House had they were in previous sessions.

SOLDIER BONUS PRESSURE

As soon as they assembled yesterday, troops were summoned to be put upon them to inflate the currency, pay the soldiers' bonus. The regulars, who have been using the legislators will have much more to do than to consider the demands of the marching of men on Washington. The unemployed will march if it is allowed, and the soldiers will undoubtedly march a bonus army may again march and last but certainly not the thousands propose to march in demand of "March" in automobile to demand of congress a reduction in rents and taxes, increased prices for farm products. The farmers propose to strike, and the men who men to give free food and milk to the poor and unemployed in cities for the sake of the country.

DESPERATE MAN

"But I'm desperate," shouted Pike hammering on the committee table. "I deserve for fuel. I like to take that man's life." He pointed to a group of men.

"We can't sit here and take this kind of talk," said Alderman Alexander.

"I won't go on unless this man is removed."

He was about to spring at him. A chair between them was knocked over and Pike's fingers closed on the arm of the chair.

As the alderman saw away before the attack Pike grabbed his neck.

After a short struggle Pike was ejected.

Alderman suffered injuries, though a torn collar gave evidence of the attack.

We do to do things like this will furnish the first test of the president even before undertakes his duties next March 4.

WOMEN HOPE FOR MEMBER IN CABINET

Feminine Attention is Focused on U.S. Election Winnings

By RESS FURMAN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—One outstanding question in the election gained, a few seats secure in the hours of representatives today were won by women, and the women were enough to focus feminine attention and hope on the possibility of a woman becoming a member of the United States federal government.

One of the outstanding arguments Democratic leaders used against President Herbert Hoover, however, was that he had rewarded his 1932 election with appointive posts. Their publications proposed that the new cabinet would be part of the $20,000,000 issue had been substantiated.

All but $10,000,000 had been awarded to $25,000,000 were held in suspense until the election, and the $10,000,000 in 20-year bonds had been given to the new cabinet.

But what was yesterday's election, was for the most part, a suspenseful affair.

True, Hattie Caraway was a member of the Senate on a one-term basis.

Missouri's "Ma" Ferguson was re-elected to the Texas governor's chair.

First female triumphant announcement in the Democratic year was that of Mrs. Mary T. Norton of New Jersey.

First feminine defeat conceded in the election was that of representative Ruth Baker Pratt, wealthy woman representing rural districts of New York, Fulton and Broome.

Canadian Loan Figures Mount

MONTRÉAL, Nov. 8.—Engulfed in a flood of applications for loans, the chartered banks for the first month of the year have been unable to meet all demands.

Consequently, the cabinet table became permanent. Consideration of the loan items, the New York woman who has ably served Roosevelt on his staff, was unable to meet all demands of labor. Mentioned also, but in connection with other posts, have been Mrs. Frank Murphy, Mrs. George Owen of Florida, and Nellie Taylor Ross, former Wyoming governor.

The new cabinet, however, was up to speed that the next post, particularly that of Secretary of State, was to be filled.

Dismiss Motion To Quash Indictment Against Harpell

MONTRÉAL, Nov. 8.—A motion to quash the indictment against James J. Harpell, accused of embezzlement, was filed in the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, which was caused to file a bill of complaint by Mr. Justice Charles A. Wilson.
